

Teachers' Convention of Education Projects held in Dinajpur Region

For the first time, Caritas Dinajpur Region arranged a colorful Convention for the Teachers during November 12-13, 2016 where almost all the teachers of all education projects under Caritas Dinajpur Region were present. The Chief Guest Most Rev. Bishop Sebastian Tudu, DD, Bishop of Dinajpur inaugurated the convention in the first day in presence of 358 teachers. They participated with very enthusiasm and actively in all events of the convention. In the second day, at the end of the program, some of the teachers expressed their feelings and experience that the teachers' convention need to be organized every year so that the teachers will be more encouraged and motivated to pay sincere services in ensuring quality education to the children.

Most Rev. Sebastian Tudu said that, 'Teaching method has to be joyful and lively; different types of techniques should be used to ensure the learning of the children.' Among others Mr. Shishir Anjelo

Rozario, the Head of Caritas Aloghar Project, Fr. Bijoy Periera, the Chaplain of Caritas Dinajpur, some RPEC members, and Sr. Officers of Caritas Dinajpur Region were present as Special Guests. Mr. Jogen Julian Besra, the Regional Director of Caritas Dinajpur presided over the program moderated by Mr. Uzzal Ekka, Regional Manager of Aloghar.

There were several events during the two-days convention, such as presentation on present scenario of education service in the Region; role and responsibility of the teachers in ensuring proper learning; future direction regarding education projects; Region and Area-based stall decoration and display of teacher/student made teaching materials; cultural program; long service award, etc. Long Service Award was given to 22 teachers for their service of 20 years and more.